

DEATH CLAIMS

J. E. HICKMAN

Word has been received here of the death, in Logan, of Prof. Josiah E. Hickman. He will be remembered as a former resident of this city, where he was an instructor in the Brigham Young university for many years. He later moved to Beaver where he had charge of the Murdoch academy. He later moved to Logan to teach in the Brigham Young college. He left that occupation to sell life insurance.

He served as a missionary to California, a few years ago. He has always been active in church affairs and has held many positions of responsibility and trust.

He is a son of George W. and Lucy A. Hickman. He was born in Salem, Utah, on August 3, 1862.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Ella Rogers Hickman, and three children. Surviving him are his widow, Martha A. Lawisch Hickman and the following children: Othello, Logan; Dee, Overton, Nevada; Eugene, Salt Lake City; George, Berkeley, Calif; Fern H. McGarry, Salt Lake; Lorea H. Brown, Rock Port, Felton, Reno, Nevada; Leon, Los Angeles; Reginald, Richmond, Calif; Jaunita H. Whitehead, Roseville, Calif; Raudino, Ogden; Val-ko L., Provo; Thorval, Washington, D. C; Kyrmel, Long Beach, Calif; and Marva H. Hansen, Paradise, Utah. Also the following brothers and sisters: G. F. Hickman, Salt Lake; F. L. Hickman, Idaho; Josephine H. Finlason, Salt Lake; Annie H. Daniels, Logan; Eunice Richardson, Benjamin, Utah, and Laura Hickman, Salt Lake.

He has written a book, "The Romance of the Book of Mormon," which will be used as the basis of the M. I. A. adult class study for the coming year. Because of falling health, he was assisted in the work of getting it in shape for the press by Dr. Sperry of this city.

He will be remembered as an outstanding speaker and was in great demand as long as his health permitted.

Funeral services will be held in the Logan First ward chapel, Saturday at 11 a. m. The body will be brought to Provo for burial in the family plot. There will be short graveside services for any of his old friends who care to attend.
